Chapter 1 by Boy-D

There was once a lonely little boy named William who lived in a house with his aunt and his cat Tom. They did not like to stay in the house all that often because the aunt was strict and bitter that they had not wasted THEIR youth. However, William did not have any friends to play with, so he spent most of his time in the woods outside. One day while exploring the luscious greens of the woods with Tom, he noticed a strange figure in the distance....
